Workshop on "Slow and Hard Learners"

A very informative and enriching session on the topic "Slow and Hard Learners" was conducted in the school on 6 March 2026 (Friday). The session was led by the esteemed resource person Mr. Ali Zama, who shared valuable insights and practical strategies for dealing with different types of learners in the classroom. The session commenced at 11:00 a.m. and concluded at 3:00 p.m. During the session, Mr. Ali Zama explained the characteristics of slow and hard learners and highlighted the challenges they face in the learning process. He also guided the teachers on how to identify such students and support them through effective teaching methods, patience, and individual attention. He further explained the importance of different learning approaches such as the Auditory, Visual, and Kinesthetic (AVK) methods. Teachers were encouraged to use visual aids like charts, pictures, and diagrams for visual learners; discussions, storytelling, and explanations for auditory learners; and hands-on activities, demonstrations, and movement-based tasks for kinesthetic learners. Various teaching techniques, classroom strategies, and motivational approaches were also discussed to help teachers make learning more engaging and accessible for every student. The resource person emphasized the importance of empathy, encouragement, and continuous assessment in improving the learning outcomes of such students. All the teachers of the school attended the session and participated actively and enthusiastically in the discussions and activities. Overall, the session proved to be highly beneficial and enlightening for the teaching staff. The school administration expressed sincere gratitude to Mr. Ali Zama for conducting such a meaningful and impactful session.
